Helix Eric Brown

Helix, Eric Brown (2.5) At first I thought this book was pretty good – given I found it in the free book section of a cruise ship's library – and wondered why I had not heard of it before. By the time I completed it, I realized why some Science Fiction is not well known.

Helix by Eric Brown - Goodreads

Helix is my first Eric Brown novel although I have had Kings of Eternity on my wish list for some time. I really rather enjoyed its naïve charm and simple narrative; if I had attempted to write a science fiction novel when I was sixteen after having been immersed, as I was, in the works of the old masters of the genre then this is the type of story I would have produced, albeit without Brown ...

Helix (2007) Eric Brown, Solaris, £7.99, pbk, 341pp, ISBN 978-1-844-1-6974-X. There is something of the Golden Age of science fiction writing in Eric Brown's Helix. It may be the wide-eyed wonder he tries to incite in the reader, or it could be the relative innocence of his characters in the face of the phenomenal wonders of science.
