Mini Pecan Pies - Live Well Bake Often

These lemon curd tarts are a staple dessert at my tea parties. I can make them quickly without even measuring the ingredients using a pastry bag to fill the small shells. The crust remains crunchy for several hours, so I make them early the morning of the tea and then refrigerate them. I also serve these at wedding and baby showers.

Putting tarts together: Assemble the mini pies the day you want to serve them. If you do it the day before, the crusts will absorb moisture from the custard and lose their crispness. Add the fruit as you're getting ready to serve them. The fruit will eventually leak juices that will affect their appearance.
